

Applying to study medicine?

Give your application a boost!

Have you thought about fundraising for a medical charity?
You can demonstrate your care & commitment to the medical community, have something extra to talk about at your interview and stand out from the other candidates.

Fundraise £200 for the Royal Medical Benevolent Fund and you will:

- ★ Get some great experience on your UCAS form
- ★ Receive a certificate from the RMBF and/or letter of recognition
- ★ Get your own goody pack
- ★ Be helping medical students and doctors in times of need
