

APPLYING TO STUDY MEDICINE?

Boost your UCAS Application!

Fundraising for a medical charity gives you a relevant extra-curricular activity to talk about in your medical school interview.

The Royal Medical Benevolent Fund (RMBF) supports doctors, medical students and their families in times of crisis.

Demonstrate your commitment to the medical community and make a real difference - join our amazing student fundraising team!

Raise £200 for RMBF and you'll receive: * A certificate * A letter of recognition * A goody pack * And a great story for your UCAS form!
